KPD invites public comment as part of accreditation process

LĪHU'E – The Kaua'i Police Department is currently seeking accreditation from the Commission on Accreditation for Law Enforcement Agencies, Inc. (CALEA). Representatives from CALEA will be on-island in August to determine if KPD complies with its state-of-the-art standards regarding policies, procedures, management, operations, and support services.

Those wishing to provide comment via telephone may do so by calling 241-1923 between 1 p.m. and 3 pm. on Tuesday, Aug. 9.

All comments will be limited to 10 minutes and must address KPD's ability to comply with CALEA's listed standards.
